

HONORABLE RICHARD A. JONES

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

LOCALS 302 AND 612 et al.,

Plaintiff,

v.

ALASKA INDUSTRIAL, LLC,

Defendant.

CASE NO. C15-106RAJ

ORDER

This matter comes before the court on Plaintiff's motion for default judgment. Dkt. # 6. The court GRANTS the motion and directs the clerk to enter default judgment as directed at the conclusion of this order.

The court's role in reviewing a motion for default judgment is not ministerial. It must accept all well-pleaded allegations of the complaint as fact, except facts related to the amount of damages. TeleVideo Sys., Inc. v. Heidenthal, 826 F.2d 915, 917-18 (9th Cir. 1987). Where those facts establish a defendant's liability, the court has discretion, not an obligation, to enter a default judgment. Aldabe v. Aldabe, 616 F.2d 1089, 1092 (9th Cir. 1980); Alan Neuman Productions, Inc. v. Albright, 862 F.2d 1388, 1392 (9th Cir. 1988). The plaintiff must submit evidence supporting a claim for a particular sum of damages. TeleVideo Sys., 826 F.2d at 917-18; see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b)(2)(B). If the plaintiff cannot prove that the sum it seeks is "a liquidated sum or capable of 1 mathematical calculation,” the court must hold a hearing or otherwise ensure that the

2 damage award is appropriate. Davis v. Fendler, 650 F.2d 1154, 1161 (9th Cir. 1981).

3 Plaintiff is the authorized administrative agent for and assignee of a union trust
4 fund. The evidence it has presented establishes that Defendant failed to pay contributions
5 and dues owed to the trust. Dkt. # 6, ¶ 12. The evidence demonstrates that the amount of 6 liability for the failure to pay contributions is $30,469.13, the liability amount for failure
7 to pay dues is $2,110.30, plus interest in the amount of $251.32. The trust contribution
8 terms, to which Defendant consented, also entitles Plaintiff to liquidated damages of 12%
9 of the liability, or $3,656.30 in this case.

10 In addition, Plaintiff requests attorney fees and costs. Although Plaintiff’s
11 evidence of attorney fees includes the hourly fees of non-attorneys, Plaintiff has 12 established that its counsel does not incorporate non-attorney work into his hourly rate,
13 and has established that counsel actually bills Plaintiff for the work of non-attorneys.
14 Dkt. #6, ¶14; Dkt. #6-1. In accordance with Trustees of the Const. Indus. & Laborers
15 Health & Welfare Trust v. Redland Ins. Co., 460 F.3d 1253, 1256-57 (9th Cir. 2006), the 16 court awards the hourly fees of both Plaintiff’s counsel and counsel’s hourly-billing
17 support staff. The court finds that Plaintiff’s evidence supports an attorney fee award of 18 $403.50 and costs of $468.25.

19 The clerk shall enter default judgment in accordance with this order.

20 DATED this 15th day of October, 2015.
